Abstract Guidelines

For RE-KnoX 2025

Abstract Submission Guidance

Thank you for your interest in submitting an abstract to RE-KnoX 2025. Please refer to this document as guidance related to the content and format of the abstract. You can download a template for the abstract or submit directly on our website.

Additional Support

RE-KnoX will provide two online meetings where mentors can offer support for abstract submission. If you are interested in this support please email: info@re-knox.com

Please ensure that your abstract complies with the provided guidelines. Submissions that do not meet these requirements or include CVs will not be accepted.

Abstract: The abstract should provide a brief but comprehensive summary of your paper's content. It offers an overview and helps readers decide whether to read the full text. Limit your abstract to 250-400 words (excluding references).

1. Abstract Content

Address the following topics (usually 1-2 sentences per topic):

- Type of Paper: Indicate whether the paper is theoretical or empirical.

- Literature Review: Highlight key aspects.

- Problem/Research Question(s): State the problem or research questions investigated.

- Hypothesis: Clearly state the hypothesis or hypotheses.

- Methods: Briefly describe the study design, sample, and sample size.

- Results: Summarize the study's results.

- Implications: Explain the importance of the study and applications of the findings.

2. Abstract Format

- Font: Use 12-point Times New Roman.

- Margins: Set 1-inch margins on all sides.

- Section Label:

  - Center and bold your title

  - Place it on the first line of the page.

- Text:

  - Start one line below the section label.

  - Write as a single paragraph without indentation.

  - Double-space the text.

3. Keywords

Keywords should be descriptive and capture the most important aspects of your paper. They facilitate indexing and serve as search terms for readers. Include three to five keywords, phrases, or acronyms. This could relate to: Research topic, Population, Method, Application of results or findings

ABSTRACT

Use this space to write your abstract as a single paragraph, without indentation, that summarizes the key points of the manuscript in 250 to 400 words. Abstract content should cover the paper's type (theoretical or empirical), highlight key aspects of the literature review, state the problem or research questions, clearly articulate the hypothesis or hypotheses, briefly describe the study design and sample characteristics, summarize the study's results, and explain the importance of the study and its implications for further research or applications. Each topic should be addressed concisely, typically in 1-2 sentences per topic. For the abstract format, utilize 12-point Times New Roman font, justified, with the title centered and bold at the top of the page, start the text one line below the title, write as a single paragraph, and double-space the text.

Keywords: writing; template; APA 7; abstract; conference *Please provide 3- 5 key words in alphabetical order separated with semicolons, not included in the title.
